SOURCE USSR-controlled Berlin Radio

Although derogatory remarks about the German Youth Administration (GYA) in the U.S. Zone have not been found among available Leipzig broadcasts monitored by FBIB on 23 July 1947, the USSR-controlled Berlin radio broadcasts the following item relative to the subject of German youth in the U.S. Zone:

CPYRGHT

"The renewed dissolution of the Munich Youth Parliament by the USMG is commented upon by the BERLINER ZEITUNG. "The renewed prohibition proves that a school of democracy cannot be organized like a game. In the Soviet Zone thousands of young members of works councils and delegations in parish, district, and State Parliaments were learning the fundamental elements of democracy through their daily practical work. Equality of youth is not a game but a fact." (IN GERMAN TO GERMANY)
